*Hispanic Creed

We believe in God, the Father Almighty creator of the heavens and the earth;
Creator of all peoples and all cultures; creator of all tongues and races.

We believe in Jesus Christ, his Son, our Lord,

God made flesh in a person for all humanity,

God made flesh in an age for all the ages,

God made flesh in one culture for all cultures,

God made flesh in love and grace for all creation.

We believe in the Holy Spirit through whom God incarnate in Jesus Christ

Makes his presence known in our peoples and our cultures;

Through whom, God Creator of all that exists, gives us power to become new creatures; whose infinite gifts make us one people: the body of Christ.

We believe in the Church Universal because it is a sign of God's Reign,

Whose faithfulness is shown in its many hues.

Where all the colors paint a single landscape,

Where all tongues sing the same praise.

We believe in the Reign of God – the day of the Great Fiesta

When all the colors of creation will form a harmonious rainbow,

When all peoples will join in joyful banquet,

When all tongues of the universe will sing the same song.

And because we believe, we commit ourselves:

To believe for those who do not believe,

To love for those who do not love,

To dream for those who do not dream,

Until the day when hope becomes reality. Amen.

(The United Methodist Spanish Hymnal, Mil Voces para Celebrar, page 70, Justo Gonzalez)

Act 2:1-21

1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. 2 and suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. 3 Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them. And a tongue rested on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the spirit gave them ability. 5 Now there were devoted Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. 6 And at this sound of the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. 7 amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 and how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? 9 Par-thi-ans, Mēdes, Ēlamītes, and residents of Mesopotāmia, Judea and Cappadōcia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cŷrēnē, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Crētans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." 12 All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" 13 But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. 15 Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. 16 No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Jōel: 17 "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. 18 Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. 19 And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. 20 The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. 21 Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."
